Welcome Remark

The dream island Jeju, Korea

Located on an island off the Korean Peninsula, Jeju, the country's largest island, has a humid subtropical climate with very warm summers and cool winters. However, ocean-effect snow brings winter precipitation such as snow showers with strong winds during the winter. Jeju welcomes over ten million visitors every year, mainly from the South Korean mainland, Japan, and China.

Jeju island is proud of being full of natural wonders, three UNESCO heritages, a Biosphere conservation area, a Volcanic Island and Lava Tubes, and the Global geopark of Jeju. In addition, Jeju possesses a wonderful deposition of Indigenous Knowledge, and unique language, and unique ecological contrast from the pacific to mount Hallasan.

We welcome all of you to this picturesque island this summer.

General Information

Procedure

The process of symposium proposal and abstract submission of the 10th EAFES international congress is being conducted in a similar manner to the previous EAFES congresses.

Scholars who wish to create their own symposiums should submit a proposal with a description of their ideas related to the theme and information of expected speakers. Submit the proposal using an attached form electronically, listed on the website (www.eafes2023.or.kr) before the submission deadline. The website will be open on March 13th, 2023.

The abstract submission is opening after March 13th, 2023. It must be submitted in a publishable form, both MS Word and PDF in final. The congress committee will review the abstracts, and the review result will be posted on the website. The authors will also be notified of the review results by email. If your abstract is accepted, the program committee will assign it to either an oral presentation or a poster session. Please prepare an oral or poster presentation accordingly, following the guidelines posted on the website. We ask that authors use the abstract submission form to make the review process easy for the reviewers, and to ensure that the abstract will be readable through the online review system. The form is also attached to this announcement.

Requirements

The symposium proposal and abstract must be submitted by the deadlines.

Accepted papers MUST be presented at the conference by one of the authors. One of the authors MUST register for the congress and MUST register before the deadline given for the registration schedule. Failure to register before the deadline will result in the automatic withdrawal of your paper from the congress proceedings and program. A single registration may cover up to two papers. Any paper accepted into the technical program, but not presented on-site will be withdrawn from the official proceedings archived.

Templates

The paper templates will be posted on the website of the congress which will open on March 13th, 2023. After then, please go to the website to download the paper templates for EAFES 2023. www.eafes2023.or.kr

Preparation of the Presentation

Presentation preparation details will be provided on the website later.
